

Collaboration and Sharing in Education

VOLUME 3

AUTUMN 2018

Shared Education Week Planning Group

Shared Education Week : Sharing the Present, Shaping the Future

Northern Ireland's first ever Shared Education Week takes place from Monday 8th October to Friday 12th October 2018. This is a wonderful opportunity for everyone involved in Shared Education to take part in a week of events and celebrations. We are delighted that through CASE we have the possibility of opening the opportunity of participation in the week to schools in the Border Counties. The objectives for the week are to:

celebrate and share the success of the Shared Education programmes being carried out in schools with their pupils, staff, parents and local communities; raise awareness and promote a better understanding of the nature, purpose, extent, value and impact of Shared Education in Northern Ireland; and explore the future direction of Shared Education.

Shared Education Week is being organised by the Shared Education Learning Forum (SELF) in partnership with key organisations involved in delivering and promoting Shared Education, good relations and reconciliation in Northern Ireland. These include: Department of Education, Education Authority, Community Relations Council, Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA), C2K, Community Relations in Schools (CRIS), Queen's University Belfast and Fermanagh Trust.

We appreciate that time and distance may be an issue in attending the events due to their location, however we would encourage you to hold your own awareness and celebration activities during Shared Education Week, for example by organising a shared assembly, class or activity to get the pupils, staff, parents and community involved

A range of events are being organised across Northern Ireland every day during the week. The launch event will take place on Monday 8th October at Girdwood Community Hub in Belfast. The Department of Education is organising conferences on Tuesday 9th and Wednesday 10th to showcase Shared Education. Thursday 11th is our 'Community Day' and Friday 12th will consider 'Where to Next' for Shared Education. All information in relation to Shared Education Week 2018 is available at

The Shared Education journey in Northern Ireland is at a crucial stage as it begins to be mainstreamed and embedded into the education system. It is important to raise awareness and explore and debate its future direction to ensure that Shared Education provision is of the highest quality, continues to grow and develop, and adds real value to the educational experience and outcomes for our children and young people.

Shared Opportunities for over 7,000 more children and young people

CASE is delighted to welcome over 60 new partnerships to the project, this means that an additional 6,500 children and young people will be engaging in school based shared education through direct, sustained, curricular-based contact.

These new partnerships will promote community cohesion, enhance educational outcomes and provide shared professional development opportunities for teachers.

"Our school communities are delighted to be working together on a CASE Peace IV Shared Education project. The excitement among the pupils is building as they prepare to meet for the first phase of their project. The foundation stage children have been talking about getting the opportunity to learn together in the outdoors, while the key stage one children are excited about pushing their ICT skills even further by programming robots together!"

We hope you will get involved by:

- Organising a shared education activity with your pupils, staff, parents and community
- Downloading the resource pack for schools at www.sharededucationweek.org
- Engaging with us on social media @SharedEdWeek
- Letting us know about your event by emailing info@selfni.org
